

Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP

Website

Throughout its 200+ year history, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft has been a leader in the legal and business arenas alike. To highlight the partners' premier practice and charitable work, the Thinkso team redesigned the firm's website homepage in the spirit of a magazine cover. Journalistic imagery and attention-grabbing headlines celebrate a selected "feature" article that rotates as the homepage is reloaded or revisited. While most law firms are still trying to keep up with yesterday's electronic trends, the nation's oldest law firm is shaping the next one.
